News from Woman
Spring 2018

Our Promise To You: To deliver a luxurious spa experience.

BULA! Bridgette and I were thrilled to attend the Pure Fiji conference, on the beautiful island of Fiji last month.

We had a fabulous time away and were totally blown away by how family orientated Pure Fiji are as a company. We saw, first hand, how much the business gives back to their community. We were fortunate to visit a local school in Notovi. A village that they helped after the hurricane two years ago. Pure Fiji, with some donations and fundraising efforts, also gifted nine laptops to the school. It was amazing to see how much work had been carried out in the village.

If you are ever in Suva, the Pure Fiji Spa is gorgeous and the factory a must see. The Fijians are lovely, warm, friendly people who just love to sing and dance. It was amazing to see for ourselves how ethical and altruistic Pure Fiji are as a company, and it made us fall in love with their products all over again!
